

Professional Judgment Request Due to Special Circumstances 2021-2022

Financial aid eligibility for the academic year is calculated based on the information you provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). For the 2021-2022 academic year, FAFSA uses 2019 tax return information to determine financial aid eligibility.

The Financial Aid Office recognizes that many families have changes in income or family situation that cannot be reflected in the 2019 tax return data. Therefore, it is possible for students to appeal their financial aid eligibility if they have unique financial circumstances.

Instructions

Students must be admitted into a Financial Aid eligible program before submitting this form.
 Requests will NOT be reviewed if your current EFC (Expected Family Contribution) is 100 or lower.

A Request for Professional Judgment may be filed if you have extenuating circumstances, which you believe warrant a reevaluation of your financial aid.

Circumstances may include, but are not limited to:

- Loss or change of employment
- Loss or change in amount of child support, Social Security, or other benefits
- Death, Divorce or Separation of parents or spouse
- Unusual medical expenses (not covered by insurance)
- One-time taxable income used for life changing events (e.g. IRA, pension distribution, back-year Social Security payments)

Circumstances that are NOT considered special and will NOT be reviewed:

- Standard living expenses (utilities, credit card payments, mortgages, rent, medical insurance premiums)
- Chapter 7 personal bankruptcy
- Anything that "might happen" in the future such as a pending reduction in income
- All other discretionary expenses.

Each Special Circumstances Form Must Include the Following:

- ✓ This form, completed, signed, and dated by student and the spouse or parent (if applicable).
- ✓ Type and attach a self-written/signed letter explaining your situation.
 - Include as much detail as possible, including dates, figures, etc. so that we have an accurate understanding of how your financial situation has changed and what it will be between 7/1/2021 and 6/30/2022.
- ✓ SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION for affected individuals (such as: workers compensation benefits statement).

Incomplete request forms will not be reviewed until all documentation has been submitted.

Requests are typically reviewed within 6 – 8 weeks. Depending on your circumstances and current eligibility, the review may or may not warrant a change in your overall financial aid package. The Financial Aid Office will notify you of the results with an email to your NTC student email account. If you have any questions, please feel free to email our office at financialaid@ntc.edu .

Certification:

I certify that the information provided on this form and accompanying documentation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that underestimating projected income or giving false or misleading information could not only result in reduced eligibility, repayment of aid, or both in the current or next academic year; but also result in being referred to the United States Department of Education's Inspector General leading to fines, jail, or both. I further understand that submission of this form does not guarantee an increase in my financial aid package.
